WILLIAM L. KELEHER, S.J.

February 18th marked the opening of a new semester, the entrance of a new class, and saw the undergraduate enrollment rise to 1350. Next month we shall welcome home more of our own veterans, to begin their philosophical studies in an intensified and accelerated program that will allow them to finish their undergraduate work in June, 1947.

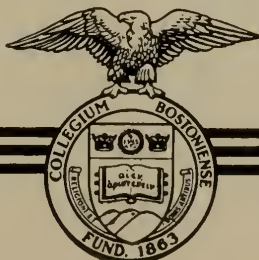

As we are now receiving applications for the class which will enter in September, we urge the Alumni to contact their relatives and friends who are making plans to come to Boston College, to file their applications at once. The College will be prepared to enroll the largest student body ever, but there must be limits. Due allowance must be made for our own veterans who will be returning throughout the year. To insure a reception for these men we must of necessity limit the number of those who will be accepted in September. It is imperative that applications for that class be filed early, with all the necessary data in the hands of the Freshman Dean as soon as possible.

Our proposed drive for funds to help us carry out our plans for expansion must be revised. We shall not conduct a public drive as we had hoped, but rather content ourselves with an earnest appeal to the Alumni and our friends. It will take us a little longer, but we feel confident that the goal we set for ourselves can be reached. To organize the Alumni and direct the campaign Father Frank V. Sullivan, S.J., recently returned to the College after three years away as a Naval Chaplain, has been assigned to the position of Director of the Fund Office. It will be a full-time assignment and Father Frank will have full and complete charge of the work. I know that he will receive the whole-hearted cooperation of the Alumni.

Our immediate goal will be the erection of a gymnasium as a Memorial to the Sons of Boston College who gave their lives in World War II. But with this, as a companion building, we shall have our first dormitory. The general plans for these two buildings are nearing completion and we shall be prepared to go ahead on the construction as soon as the necessary funds are gathered.

Let me take this occasion to thank those members of the Alumni Association who have manifested their loyalty to the College in the last few years, regularly adding their contributions to the General Funds without waiting for a word of reminder from the College or the Association. It is this spontaneous interest in the expansion of the College that makes us confident that we cannot fail in our building plans.

A CHALLENGE TO FRANCO-PHOBIA

(A Review of "Wartime Mission In Spain" by Carlton J. Hayes—Macmillian, $3.00)

FRANCIS E. LOW, S.J.

Mr. Hayes' interesting, factual account of his three years mission as our ambassador to Spain during the War, merits a prominent place in the record of our recent enigmatic foreign policy. So many false and malicious reports about Franco and Spain's alleged Facist or Axis government have been published or carried to millions of persons over the radio that an unbiased report on the subject from a competent source is gratifying and timely.

As was expected, the book has displeased the numerous anti-Franco pressure groups in this country. It was hardly off the press before the anvil chorus of raucous voices, unable to refute or challenge Mr. Hayes' views, began to clamor for its suppression. Hostile reviews in several radical publications, and latent determined influences must have made an impression, because, strangely, it soon became difficult to buy the book. Advertisements of it were practically discontinued, and requests for orders from book-stores and eager individuals were delayed or deferred for several weeks. "Wartime Mission in Spain" is now on the book-shelves again, and I urge all who are interested in objective truth to get a copy, study it, and pass it along to those who still think that Franco is a sort of scourge of civilization or at least a thorn in the side of all peace-loving nations.

According to Mr. Hayes, as early as 1942, eighty per cent of the Spanish people were anti-Hitler and pro-Ally, (i.e. in favor of the United Nations except Russia's communistic threat). Shortly after the ambassador's arrival, Franco made clear to him that he was not for an Axis victory in Europe, but that Spain's and Europe's real threat was Atheistic Communism. The "Caudillo," whom Mr. Hayes describes as a cultured, honest, and intelligent man, repeated this conviction at frequent intervals, even as late as the last weeks of the latter's tenure of office. Recent trends in Spain and Europe seem to vindicate Franco's fears.

The following conclusions are either direct quotations from "Wartime Mission in Spain," or in substance what the author has written. He has given a summary on page 297 and in a few pages crystallizes for us his own impressions

(1) From the outbreak of the War, Spain determined to keep out of it entirely, and for many serious reasons. The nation had been weakened by the recent revolution. It was trying to recover its strength and health. Further blood shed could only increase its heavy burden. (2) The Axis enemy had several German divisions on the Spanish border. Hundreds of German U-boats filled the waters off the Spanish coast. Any show of resistance to Hitler would have been fatal for Spain. He knew that he could easily conquer Spain, if he chose to do so. That he never made the attempt is regarded by Mr. Hayes as little short of miraculous, and a real tribute to Franco's "appeasement of Hitler in words, but not in deeds." (3) From a state of non-belligerency, Franco gradually led Spain to real neutrality and later to "benevolent neutrality" which not only kept Spain out of the Axis sphere, but ministered to the best interests of England and the United States in numerous matters of vital importance. Several of these are described in detail by Mr. Hayes. (4) It may surprise the reader to hear the ambassador complain that his greatest obstacle in attaining the objective of his mission, did not come from Franco, or even from the noisy insistence of the "Falange" which Franco had successfully curbed, but from the "vocal but non-factual radical press and commentators in the United States. Even Cordell Hull in answering Mr. Hayes' protests admitted that our State department was embarrassed by them, but powerless to prevent their influence on public opinion in this country.

Well, they are still at it, and undoubtedly will continue to agitate, fume against and calumniate Spain and Franco in the hope that the so-called "government in exile" in Mexico (nearly all of them discredited international bandits) will replace Franco and really bring Spain in the near future under the hammer and sickle. Mr. Hayes maintains that we should not meddle in Spain's internal affairs, but help the Spanish people to govern themselves.

RECEPTION TO RECTOR

RECEPTION

A reception to Very Rev. William L. Keleher, S.J., by the Alumni Association will be held on Tuesday evening, April 30, at the Hotel Somerset, Boston. The dinner will start at 7 o'clock.

John A. Canavan, '18, Alumni president, has appointed John B. Atkinson, '16, as general chairman. Serving on the executive committee are Thomas F. Scanlan, '20; Jeremiah W. Mahoney, '21; John C. Gill, '31; William J. Sheehan, '22; John J. Walsh, '15, and John Spencer, '29.

Since this will be the first opportunity for the Alumni to meet Father Keleher, a heavy demand for tickets is expected. Many classes have already indicated they will be present in large numbers.

Please make reservations early. Send your remittance ($50.00 a table, $5.00 a person), made out to the Boston College Alumni Association, to Executive Secretary John J. Hayes, Boston College Alumni Association, Chestnut Hill 67, Mass.

ELECTIONS

The first election of Alumni officers since 1942, will be held this year, the results of which will be announced on Alumni Day.

Under the constitution the nominating committee is comprised of delegates from the Boston College clubs or chapters. They will meet in March to select candidates for the different positions. Then ballots will be distributed by mail to the Alumni eligible to vote.

ALUMNI DAY

Alumni Day will be observed on Monday, June 10. Early notice so that the Alumni may plan to be present this year. For the first time since the war started the baseball game between the College nine and Holy Cross will be played.

The annual Alumni retreat will be held on the preceding week-end, June 7-9, at Campion Hall, North Andover. Reservations are being accepted at the Alumni office.

FATHER KENEALY HONORED

Rev. William J. Kenealy, S.J., Dean of the Law School, was honored by a testimonial dinner by members of the bench and bar at the Copley Plaza Hotel on February 5.

Over 500 listened to Lt. Comdr. Kenealy relate his experiences as chaplain of the USS California and outline the future policies of the Law School.

Father Kenealy's eminence among leading jurists has been attested to on several occasions and this dinner in his honor was attended by one of the largest gatherings of legal luminaries in Boston's history. Among those introduced by Toastmaster John J. Burns, '21, were Governor Maurice J. Tobin, the Honorable Henry T. Lummus, associate justice of the Supreme Judicial Court; the Honorable Edmund W. Flynn, chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Rhode Island, and Rear Admiral Felix X. Gygax, USN, Commandant of the First Naval District.

B. C. CLUBS

With the cessation of the war the B. C. Clubs are becoming active once again. On March 17, at 10 A. M. the Cambridge Club will have a Communion Breakfast at the Hotel Continental, Cambridge. President John A. Kelley, '28, has appointed Dr. Thomas H. D. Mahoney, '36, as chairman. The club is also planning a dance in the Spring.

The Somerville Club has arranged a Communion Breakfast for April 7 at the Hotel Continental, Cambridge. President John Griffin has appointed William F. Joy, '40, as chairman.

Active throughout the war, the New York Club met on February 16 at the Hotel Sheraton, New York, to hear Captain Philip C. Mahady, USNR, Merchant Marine Academy, Kings Point, N. Y., and Rev. Philip Dobson, S.J., an authority on labor problems. Fred Gannon, '27, was chairman.

MONSIGNORI

Congratulations are extended to the following members of the Association who were elevated to the rank of monsignor by Pope Pius XII in December at the suggestion of Archbishop Cushing:

Rt. Rev. Msgr. Matthew J. Flaherty, '85, St. Agnes' Church, Arlington; Rt. Rev. Msgr. John T. Creagh, '91, St. Aidan's Church, Brookline; Rt. Rev. Msgr. Thomas R. McCoy, '95, St. Ann's Church, Somerville; Rt. Rev. Msgr. Frederick J. Allchin, '00, St. Mary's Church, Charlestown; Rt. Rev. Msgr. Mark C. Driscoll, '03, St. Mary's Church, Dedham; Rt. Rev. Msgr. Eric F. MacKenzie, '14, Church of the Sacred Heart, Newton Center.

VETERANS ENROLL

✻ Fast approaching pre-war registration the student body enrollment reached 1360 when another Freshman class was admitted this month. Three hundred sixty-four Freshmen entered, 297 of whom were veterans. In addition, 176 veterans entered the Pre-Matriculation course. This course is for veterans only, and its purpose is to prepare them for entrance examinations. The total number of veterans in the whole school is 805.

Among the veterans are many from distant points who entered Boston College due to the influence of students and alumni in the service. One veteran from Pittsfield registered because of a B. C. man's "sales talk" at Guadalcanal.

The presence of so many out-of-town students has created a real housing problem, an argument for dormitories on the campus. The situation became so serious this month that an appeal was made in the local churches for the parishioners to rent rooms to students.

The question is frequently raised whether the College will be able to admit all candidates in the near future. Because of limited facilities this seems impossible. By September the maximum enrollment will be reached. There will be admitted all returning veterans who left the College to enter the service, a normal Freshman class and a limited number of veterans who did not attend the College previously. Transfer students cannot be accommodated. It is recommended they return to their own colleges where they enjoy a priority. Former Army Specialized Training students of the Boston College unit will be looked upon by the administration as former students and therefore will be accepted.

Every facility will be used to accelerate the program of the returning veteran to guarantee his graduation at the earliest possible date.

PUBLICITY-PLACEMENT

Bill Hayward, '36, resumed his duties as Director of Publicity in December after serving as a lieutenant in the Navy for three years. He was in the Pacific area for two years at Midway, the Marianas, Marshalls, Carolinas, Philippines, and Okinawa, where he was wounded by shrapnel in April, 1945.

Also back at the Heights is George P. Donaldson, '29, Director of the Placement Bureau. He served with the Army in California, Okinawa and Japan.

REV. TERENCE L. CONNOLLY, S. J.

Father Connolly assumed duties as librarian of the College last month after returning from England and Ireland, where he had been engaged in literary research. When in Ireland he went to Dublin where he was received by Eamonn de Valera and President Sean T. O'Kelley.

To aid the Library Fund Father Connolly has arranged a series of lectures on post-war impressions. The second lecture, "Post-War Impressions of Ireland," will be given on March 19 at the New England Mutual Hall, Boylston Street, Boston. The Alumni, especially former students of Father Connolly, are invited.

PROFESSORS RETURN

Another indication that the College is becoming normal once again is the gradual return of the members of the faculty on leave of absence during the war.

Lt. Colonel John K. Rouleau of the Chemistry department entered the Army in September, 1940. In 1940 and 1941 he served as Adjutant, Army Inspector of Ordnance at the Kankakee Ordnance Works, Joliet, Ill. From 1941 to 1942 he was Commanding Officer of the Maumelle Ordnance Works at Marche, Ark. In 1943 he went to Baldwinsville, N. Y., to become Commanding Officer of the New York Ordnance Works. The same year he assumed the duties of Field Director of Ammunition Plants at St. Louis, Mo., scheduling, procuring and producing ammunition and explosives for the Army and Navy, for Great Britain, U.S.S.R., China and the Free French. He held the title of Assistant Chief of the Powder and Explosives Division. From 1944 until last year Colonel Rouleau was assigned to the Radford and New River Ordnance Plants in Radford and Dublin, Va. He was Commanding Officer of both plants. Colonel Rouleau is on terminal leave until April 5.

Rev. John P. Foley, S.J., formerly Dean of Freshmen, has returned to become a member of the advisory group for veterans. Entering the Navy in April, 1942, he was at sea from June, 1942, to March, 1944, aboard the combat transport, USS George Clymer, a member of the task forces that helped to establish beachheads at Casablanca, Guadalcanal, and Bougainville. From June to December in 1944 he was one of the four chaplains on duty at the U. S. Naval Hospital, Bethesda, Md. After that, Father Foley was assigned to the USS Vella Gulf, an aircraft carrier which was active in several engagements in the Pacific. At the end of the war it anchored in Tokyo Bay, supplying air coverage for the occupation forces. Lt. Comdr. Foley is still on terminal leave.

Rev. Francis J. McDonald, S.J., was released from the Navy on January 15 after serving 40 months. Lt. Comdr. McDonald was on duty in the Philippines, Okinawa, Korea, Ulithi, Eniwetok, China and New Caledonia. He was in the Department of Education before entering the service.

Dr. Frederick E. White, of the Department of Physics, on leave since November, 1942, worked in the Division of Physical War Research at Duke University, organized to carry out a secret and confidential contract with the Office of Scientific Research and Development. Professor White was supervisor in charge of most of the work in Applied Physics and all the work involving statistics.

Rev. Richard G. Shea, S.J., Classics department, became an Army chaplain on December 18, 1942. He served with the Transportation Corps at Camp Patrick Henry, Newport News, Va., until August, 1944. During part of this period he was a chaplain on the USS William Mitchell. From August to October, 1944, Father Shea was stationed with the 61st Infantry Training Regiment at Camp Blanding, Fla. In November, 1944, he went overseas to join the Ninth Air Force and saw service in France, Belgium and Germany until September, 1945. Father Shea's last assignment was at Shaw Field, S. C., with the First Air Force. He was a captain when discharged.

Lt. Harold H. Fagan, '19, Chemistry department, left the Heights in February, 1943, for the Army (Chemical Warfare). He served at Forts Monroe and Belvoir, Va., and Edgewood Arsenal, Md. He was discharged last month.

Rev. James F. Geary, S.J., became a chaplain in the Army on April 30, 1944. From June until February, 1945, he was stationed with the 39th Infantry Training Battalion, Camp Croft, S. C. From there Capt. Geary in March, 1945, "entered the 'pipeline' of overseas deployment at Indiantown Gap, Pa., soon went to Camp Kilmer, N. J., and eventually was disgorged from the innards of the 'Queen Elizabeth' on the verdant shores of Scotland. Here began the Grand Tour under the auspices of the G.F.R.C., better known as the 'repple-depple system,' which took me to Southern England, to France, to Belgium, to Germany, back to France and England—to my first regular overseas assignment at the 115th U. S. Station Hospital at Tavistock, England. In two weeks the tour was resumed—to France and, after a two-month delay at Metz, to Augsburg Germany, where the hospital eventually opened for business. From Augsburg I returned via LeHavre to Boston on December 27, 1945."

Rev. Vincent de Paul O'Brien, S.J., formerly Dean of the Intown School, now a member of the veterans' advisory group, became a chaplain in December, 1945, with the rank of lieutenant in the United States Maritime Service. He was stationed at Sheepshead Bay Training Station, Brooklyn, N. Y., and at the Radio Training Station, Gallup's Island, Boston. Father O'Brien was discharged last December.

VETERANS' EDUCATION

Below are given digests of the G. I. Bill and Public Law 16 as summarized by the National Council on Education. This summary was published in the November NEWS, but is again presented because of several changes. John F. Parrell, '29, of the Veterans' Administration, kindly prepared the present report.

G. I. Bill Public Law 346 (Veterans)

Eligibility: Discharged under conditions other than dishonorable. Served 90 days since Sept. 15, 1940. 90 days requirement waived if there is a proven service-incurred disability.

How to Apply: Fill out VA Form 1950 either at institution or regional office of Veterans Administration. The Veterans Administration certifies eligibility. Form must be filed within four years after the war or after discharge, whichever is later.

Counseling: Selection of Institution and Program May request tests and guidance. May select any institution approved by the state in which it is located. May take any courses the institution permits. Can change institution or courses only with approval of the Veterans Administration.

Length of Training: All eligible for retraining and refresher courses for one calendar year; plus further training equal to length of active service (certain kinds of specialized training—ASTP, V-12, etc., may be termed inactive service) but not in excess of 4 calendar years or its equivalent in part-time study. No benefits beyond 9 years after war or service.

Benefits: U. S. pays tuition, books, and fees not to exceed $500 during an ordinary school year (30-38 weeks). Subsistence paid during time actually in school $65 a month if single and full-time student. Reductions if part-time. $90 if one or more dependents. If taking on-the-job training certain adjustments are made in allowance. Officers on terminal leave may take training and have tuition and fees paid. Subsistence will be effective day after terminal leave expires. This is retroactive to June 22, 1944.

Vocational Rehabilitation Public Law 16 (Disabled Veterans)

Honorably discharged with pensionable disability. Served any time since December 6, 1941 and before end of present war; shows need for training File VA Form 1900 with V. A. regional office paying the applicant's pension. Must file while handicap exists and only after application for pension (VA Form 526) has been approved.

Must take tests and use counseling services provided by or through V. A. Institution selected with cooperation of V. A. from those having contract or agreements with V. A. Courses selected in cooperation with V. A. but must lead to employability in a specific occupation. Occupation selected with approval of V. A. May not change courses unless absolutely necessary.

A course of training not to exceed 48 months nor to extend beyond 9 years after the end of the war. Will receive as much training as is needed to rehabilitate into a specific occupation.

U. S. pays tuition, books, and fees (generally not over $500). During training and for two months after—$105 minimum per month including pension, if single. If married—$111 minimum per month. Allowances for dependents: $10 for 1st child, $7 for each additional child, $15 for each dependent parent.

SPORTS

NATHANIEL J. HASENFUS, '22

BASKETBALL

The season opened with a 50-44 loss to Manhattan, a game in which the Eagle faded with victory within its talons. Then came a thrilling 53-50 conquest at King's Point, with Wolf and Harrington shooting the winning baskets, although Kenney scored 18 points. Fitzgerald and Kenney shared the B. C. limelight in a 38-34 loss to Villanova, and Kenney led the pack with 15 points against a vastly superior Holy Cross club, that doubled the B. C. score, winning 70-39. In its own class, the Eagles defeated Providence, 60-47, as Kenney and Fitzgerald scored 35 points between them. N.Y.U. soundly beat the Maroon, 63-33, the Eagles playing entirely outside its own league. Again Kenney showed his scoring ability by caging 19 points. Twenty-five hundred saw the Eagles defeated, 37-30, by Andrews Post, American Legion, at Portland, when the Newton boys found the pace too hot for them in the last 10 minutes. Another court Goliath, St. John's, outclassed the Boston Davids, 69-44. Sharpy was outstanding for B. C., while Strug, playing his first game, scored 4 and 3. The Eagles played their first basketball game with Amherst, setting up a 3-2 defense and winning, 67-38. Bob Fitzgerald shot 18 points, and Ray Carr, playing for the first time, scored 16, as the Eagles returned to their own class in New England college basketball. Holy Cross won handily in the second game of the series, defeating the Maroon, 62-46, in a game far closer than the first contest, and a game in which Kenney and Carr vied with O'Connell and Kafton in brilliance, as the two Newport boys scored 16 and 14 points.

As the season comes into its final stages, the team will continue to improve, and 1947 should find an Eagle five that will hold its own, not only with the colleges of New England, but also with the type of opposition that in this first year of the revival of the game was too stern. In the freshmen of this year's club, the GI's who have returned, and the new basketball material that will now be attracted to the Heights, next year's team will win its share of the games and perhaps be the darling of the Garden fans.

HOCKEY

The informal hockey team, made possible by the spirit of the boys themselves, has done itself proud, and we hope that the team will be recognized and letters awarded. Coached and captained by John Buckley, the first coach-captain since Walter Falvey in 1919, the six have played representative hockey.

The hockey team has done well. Meeting club teams as well as college sixes, the team is fast and well-coached. Two games of an exciting series with the Crusaders have been split, and a third game is in the offing. Defeated at Worcester in a thrilling contest, 4-0 (two goals coming in the last few minutes), the Eagles rallied magnificently to win at the Skating Club, 3-2, with Boston dominating the play throughout. Don Bussiere, Montreal star, with two goals and two assists, was the outstanding Crusader at Worcester, but Soccorso did well in the nets. At Boston the Eagles ran up a 3-0 lead that the excellent net-minding of Collins held until the last five minutes. A B. C. defense, with wings playing wide, slowed the dashes of Bussiere. Scores were made by Gorman, Fitzgerald and Leary. The brand of game turned in by the under-dog Eagles should attract a throng for the play-off. Only when the examination-riddled Eagles met Dartmouth at Hanover were the Newton boys outclassed, for an excellent Jeremiah-coached six turned on the heat, and the score was kept within bounds only by the excellent net-tending of John Spinney, who made a Hanover record of 59 stops, to put Spinney in the same class as earlier Eagle goalies, Fitzgerald, Ready, Moore and Carey.

The Icemen of 1946 have several more games on the schedule, most important being those with Holy Cross, Brown, and perhaps, Harvard.

BASEBALL, TRACK, FOOTBALL

With the reappointment of two coaches, Denny Myers in football, and Fred Maguire in baseball, the athletic program at the Heights looks as it did in the halcyon days. Only in track is the picture really dark, because for the first time since early Newton days, the coach has not even enough runners for a representative relay four. Although the return of pre-war football players will help Myers immeasurably and Maguire has some worthwhile baseball prospects, Jack Ryder's task is really unenviable. Yet Jack Ryder is the dean of New England track coaches, and his 27th year at the Heights will be far happier than this, his 26th.

Parade of the Classes

 Joseph L. Powers, Headmaster of the Boston Latin School, was elected President of the New England Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools at the annual meeting of the Association in December.

1902

 Rev. Edmund C. Sliney has been appointed parish priest of the Immaculate Conception Church, Winchester.

1905

 John F. Greene, associated with Ford, Bacon and Davis, New York, directed construction projects for the Army and Navy during the war exceeding 100 million dollars. He was the construction engineer in charge of the enlargement of the submarine plant and shipyard for the Electric Company at Groton, Connecticut. He also directed the construction of a complete new submarine plant and shipyard and a 115 mm shell plant in the same town. He had charge of the construction of the Vigo Ordnance Plant near Terre Haute, Indiana, and part of the Atomic Bomb Plant at Oak Ridge, Tennessee.

1907

 Joseph Burns was appointed by Governor Tobin in January to the position of Personnel Director for Massachusetts.

1914

JOHN S. KEOHANE
12 Acacia Avenue, Chestnut Hill
 Congratulations to our class president, Monsignor Eric F. MacKenzie, who was signally honored last month by the Holy Father in his appointment as a Domestic Prelate. Monsignor MacKenzie was a professor at St. John's Seminary for almost twenty-five years before becoming pastor of the Sacred Heart Church, Newton Centre. He also presides over the Matrimonial Court of which he has been a member for twenty years. We record with regret the death of Father John Dwyer, S.J., who died December 8. Father John had taught for sixteen years at Holy Cross but in August, due to failing health, was transferred to the Heights. His was a gentle and kindly character. We will miss him. R. I. P.

Congratulations and best wishes to Father Jim Welch who has been appointed founder and first pastor of St. Agnes' Parish, Middleton.

HELP!

'Tis like stirring living embers, when at fifty-plus one remembers
All the friends and dear companions of those happy college days,
When with music and with laughter and no thoughts of "morning after"
We often called it evening till we saw the dawn's first rays.

Armed with universal knowledge and degrees from Boston College.
We meant to set the world on fire,
but didn't have a chance.
We enlisted or were drafted, and across the sea were wafted
To do our share of fighting on the battlefields of France.

One by one the boys got married, to the font their offspring carried,
Then settled to the grindstone, and the years went on apace.

Soon our sons were on the campus,
(Some of us already grandpas),
But there's nothing for the headlines in a life so commonplace.

Now then, classmates, bald or hoary,
if you're known to fame and glory,
And wish to keep the name of
"Fifteen" still alive

Send the word by phone or letter (and the more of them the better)
To the one who needs the data,
Jack Lahive.

JAMES L. O'BRIEN
41 Pondred Circle, Jamaica Plain
 Father Daniel Donovan, Executive Secretary of the Diocesan Holy Name Society, has been appointed administrator of St. James', Boston. The annual banquet of the class was held Wednesday evening, January 30, at the University Club. Dr. Arthur Falvey, class president, planned the program, assisted by Frank Mahoney, Bill Carney and Dr. Roy Heffernan. Ed Coffey was re-elected Mayor of Salem. He is now serving his fifth term.

Joe Scolponetti has been appointed corporation counsel for Boston.

Rev. Alexander McCarthy is now pastor at Merrimac.

Dr. Fred Gillis has been appointed State chairman of the American Legion Orotorical Contest.

Al Brennan is doing a great job as an organizer in the B. C. High drive for a new school.

Pat Donovan has been appointed Golf and Tennis coach at the Dorchester High School for Boys.

Father George Casey is still serving in France as a chaplain.

Joe Sheehan of the Reconstruction Finance Corp. will be one of the government experts handling surplus war material.

Congratulations to Frank Woods on his recent marriage.

THOMAS D. CRAVEN
42 Mellen Street, Dorchester

 John Mahoney, the original scribe of this column, is now in the Waltham office of the Social Security Board.

Jack Fihelly is temporarily out of his office as Ass't D. A. for the District of Columbia and having been commissioned in the Army, is in Tokyo for the war guilt trials in progress there.

Cliff Healey is back again in his old position as submaster of Rockland High School and is teaching Latin. During the war he was in charge of the school.

Dr. Charles Twomey of Lynn has earned for himself a reputation as an outstanding surgeon in the North Shore area.

Dan Daley, senior instructor in the Brandeis Vocational School, reports on the young Daleys: Bill is Lt. (s.g.) on an army transport; Dan, Jr. has been discharged from service with naval aviation; Paul is a junior at Bridgewater State Teachers' College, Hazel is a senior at Simmons; Sally is a senior at Medford H. S.

Charlie Sharkey is out of service with the Motor Transport and is practicing law in Boston. He expects to go back to Washington with the WLB.

Matt Mealey, master at Jamaica Plain H. S., was assistant coach of football last fall. He reports that son Richard after spending one semester at the Heights is in boot training at Bainbridge. Son Robert will finish his sophomore work in the spring with the Army Specialized Training at Tufts Medical and then will go into the reserve and continue his medical studies.

Fr. Bill Reilly, pastor of St. Ann's Parish in Wayland, was given a cordial reception by his parishioners at Sandy Burr.

John Hennessey, master in Roxbury Memorial H. S. for Boys, is now acting Head of the Commerical Department.

Frank Heanue and Paul Waters are active in the Holy Name Society of the Sacred Heart Church, Newton Center. Paul is vice-president and Frank is in charge of publicity. Two other members of the board of Directors are from the College.

Tom Kinahan, representative of the Edison Co. of N. J., has recovered from the illness which incapacitated him some time ago. (We wonder if any one calls him "Stretch" now.)

JOHN M. O'LOUGHLIN

631 Fellsway, Medford

 Dr. Ed Smith has resumed his practice at 520 Commonwealth Avenue after serving in the Navy as a captain.

Father William L. Gross has been transferred to the Most Precious Blood Church, Hyde Park.

1919

FRANCIS D. SHEA

56 Richwood Street, West Roxbury

 The Class has lost another of its members. Father Garrett W. Scollard died on December 31. Father Garrett has been relieved of parish duties for the past several years because of ill health. Despite his poor health he was always keenly interested in the doings of the Class and of the College. Father Scollard received all the honors of his Church at his funeral services which were presided over by His Excellency, Archbishop Cushing, and were attended by His Excellency, Bishop Kelleher, many monsignori, and an exceptionally large gathering of priests. Among the priests were several of the Class including Father Martin Harney, S.J., Father Edward Douglas, S. J., Father William Harrington from Fall River, Father John Lyons, Father Daniel McCarthy, Father Henry Evers, Father Leo O'Day, Father John Wall, and Father George Scully, who was Master of Ceremonies. We saw several of the Class at the services including Basil Kelley, Bill O'Connor, Bob Simmons, Bill Walsh, Bill Kirby, John Gorman, and Charlie Fitzgerald. Fred Shea and Frank Shea represented the Class as pall bearers. The sympathy of the class is extended to Father Scollard's mother and sisters, and to Frank Roland, his brother-in-law.

We extend the sympathy of the Class to Bernard Donovan on the recent death of his father. Bernie, who is a lieutenant commander in the Navy, is expected to return soon to his duties as head of the history department at Roxbury Memorial High School (Boys).

Frank Roland is now moving in international circles. As the Acting Head Master of the High School of Commerce, he recently entertained the UNO delegates.

Pat Tangney has returned to this vicinity and is now living in Quincy. We understand he is reorganizing the leather trade of Boston. We expect to see Pat at our next class meeting which will take place when our Lowell President discovers that the war is over.

This is the first notice of the annual retreat of the CLASS OF 1919. The retreat has been arranged for early in June at Campion Hall, North Andover. The members of the Class will receive detailed notices later.

J. ROBERT BRAWLEY

33 Pomfret Street, West Roxbury

 dere john:

the class got together for its 26th annual dinner last december at the hotel lenox and quite a few of the gang who had been missing for a while reappeared on the scene and enjoyed the steaks which also had been missed for quite a number of years and bill "dinny" lyons got out of devens that same day in time to greet the boys and tell us about the philippine invasion and when he stopped alban mcinnis took over and in his best garbled french told us about the european theatre of operations and speaking of operations reminds me that dr. paul n. a. rooney was laid up with a cold but is back on his 24 hour medical shifts again and walter collins licked a strep infection that had him on the canvas for a while which is more than our opponents in football were able to do from '16 to '20 and then father john lane brought along to the dinner oblate father james w. burke from lowell who had spent three years in a jap prison camp but the pair of them had to leave for home early so we had no chance to listen to them and ed crowley finally got in from abington to be with us and ed mckeown from quincy but father russ haley and johnny donohue couldn't get in from salem because one of them was running a penny sale or something and the other was working for him for the evening and joe white would have been there only he forgot to remember the date which caused judge elias shamon to get so lonesome that he left early leaving the legal atmosphere to paul troy and jerry kellaheer and someone said that father john mcginley is now stationed at st. patrick's, roxbury and then to end all this joe mcLaughlin was in to see me and at first i thought he was "'stringing" me along but it turned out that he is now connected with a boston paper and twine company and for your "information" arthur grimm is in charge of the telephone company in upper new york state with headquarters in syracuse, that's a joke, son, don't you get it stringing twine information telephone but i guess i'd better quit now because it hurts just as much to write this story as it does to read it and with thanks to leo aicardi for taking over in the last issue i'll say

GORDON F. IRONS

9 Emmonsdale Road, West Roxbury

 In August, 1944, Leo Callanan, was commended for outstanding performance of duty at Recife, Brazil by Jonas H. Ingram, Commander of the South Atlantic Force, U. S. Atlantic Fleet, in a letter to the Secretary of State. The commendation states in part: "In nearly four years in Brazil I have had occasion to come in contact with a good many consular representatives in the various cities of the Northeast. Two of these men have been so outstanding in their service that they are both worthy of special commendation. Mr. Callanan has, in my opinion, been exceeded in ability and general character of work by no other consular officer that has come under my personal observation. "I, therefore, personally commend him very strongly to you for having performed far beyond what is normally expected. He has been quiet, efficient, patient, painstaking, and has followed every issue through to a satisfactory and successful conclusion. If it is compatible with the policy of your department, I request that this letter be made a part of the official record of Mr. Callanan."

Father Leo Dumas is now at St. Louis', Lowell, and Father Alfred Sheehan is at the Sacred Heart Church, East Boston.

Monsignor Walter J. Furlong was recently elected President of the Canon Law Society of America.

Judge John J. Burns was toastmaster at the testimonial dinner to Rev. William J. Kenealy, S. J., at the Copley Plaza on February 5. Jerry Mahoney and Judge Frank W. Tomasello served on the dinner committee.

Congratulations to Eddie Drohan and to his father and mother who recently celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary.

Henry McNerney is Principal of the new veterans' school located in the High School of Commerce building. Eugene J. O'Neil is Secretary of the Boston Schoolmen's Economic Association.

Mortimer Reardon is Submaster of the Washington Irving Intermediate School, Roslindale.

The 25th Anniversary Committee held a meeting at the College on the evening of January 25. Those present were Monsignor Furlong, Jerry Mahoney, Judge John Sullivan, Steve Griffin, Hugh O'Regan, Linus Callen, Bob Foy, Jimmy Cox, and Gordon Irons. Plans were made for the events to be held this year.

On March 31 in St. Mary's Chapel at the College the members of the Class will attend Mass at 9:55 A.M. A communion breakfast will follow. We shall present a gift to the College on Alumni Day. Kindly send your contribution to Morgan Ryan, 30 State Street, Boston.

On Saturday, June 8, there will be a Class outing, a family affair, at the Hatherly Country Club, Scituate. Sunday, June 10, Alumni Day, the Class will have luncheon at the Commonwealth Country Club before going to the Heights for the general Alumni exercises.

NATHANIEL J. HASENFUS
15 Kirk Street, West Roxbury

Father Leonard McMahon, former Navy Chaplain, is now stationed at St. Mary's Cambridge, and Father Joseph Bracken has been transferred to St. John the Evangelist Church, Hopkinton.

Christmas cards from Major Frank Daly bring word that he is now stationed in Frankfurt, Germany. Congratulations to coach Gerald Deeley of the undefeated Dorchester High School hockey team.

Eugene Fanning is again doing excellent work among the school boys and girls of the State in his automobile driving lectures and demonstrations for the Department of Motor Vehicles.

Frank Flynn, erstwhile bugler in the old Boston College unit of the S. A. T. C. in World War I, is now a major and is stationed in Japan.

Congratulations to Headmaster Herbert Gilgan on his Class D football championship team at Stetson High in Randolph.

Evening principals in Boston include Walter McSwiney at the Blackstone School, John Meade at East Boston High and the Barnes School, and your correspondent at South Boston High and South Boston Elementary School.

William Sheehan is another '22 man who has a boy at the Heights. Or did have, he was drafted in January. Part of the reason for the long and happy life of Father Delaney, dean of all the pastors in the diocese, is the zealous work of Rev. Thomas Sweeney, who has been in Natick since his ordination in 1927.

Paul Thayer has returned from the South and has joined the faculty of English High.

Among the '22 men who are active in the B. C. High Building Fund are William Elbery, William O'Brien, Daniel Hayes, Fred Moran, John White and John McKearin.

John McKearin has been appointed sales manager of the General Electric division of the White Fuel Corporation. Previously he had been domestic sales manager of the Boston Consolidated Gas Company.

9 McKane Street, Dorchester

The annual banquet of the class was held at the Parker House, Wednesday, January 30, with 25 members present. This, despite inclement weather conditions, was a good showing, and was graced with the presence of two of our clergy classmates, the Rev. Harold F. McDermott and the Rev. Lea M. McCabe. President Cece McGoldrick turned the meeting over to Chairman Gaynor Wellings who proceeded to bring forth from the assemblage many and variegated speeches, enlightening and humorous. A moment of silence and prayer was dedicated to the memory of our classmate, Daniel L. Kelleher, who died in an automobile accident last fall.

President McGoldrick appointed a committee which brought in the officers for the coming year: president, John P. Flavin of Quincy; vice-presidents, Rev. Harold F. McDermott, Francis J. Hickey and Beaven J. McGady; secretary, Gerald F. Coughlin; treasurer, Edward C. Dullea. Your reporter was retained as Scriptor for a few more semesters.

In addition to those previously mentioned the following were present: Joe Crane, Tom' Eccles, Gitch Gormley, Jim McLaughlin, Walter Maya, Ed Garrity, Tony Comerford, Dick Rockett, Joe Comber, Owen Gallagher, George Olesen, Joe Galvin, Frank Dailey, Johnny Keyes, Jim Reardon and Bill Argy.

"Now it can be told," says Dr. Leo R. Desmond, in a recent letter which reads as follows: "Just a few lines for your news column. It was Major Leo Desmond, section chief in General Surgery of the 31st General Hospital, serving 18 months on the island of Espiritu Santo in the New Hebrides group, and six months on the island of Luzon, P. I. at San Fernando, Province of La Union. It is nice to be a civilian again." Dr. Leo has resumed practice at 632 Columbia Rd., Dorchester, a change of address from 716 Columbia Rd.; and also at his home in East Milton.

Here is one of our classmates who would like to see us, one or all, Lt. Colonel (Chaplain) Bill (Ike) Carty who at present is at the Lovell General Hospital, Fort Devens, Mass., for a rest. Fr. Leo McCabe brought his best wishes to us at the banquet, and his desire to see any of us at any time.

Our new president, John Flavin, is also the City Solicitor of Quincy under the present regime.

Congratulations to our Jack Heaphy, stellar coach of the very successful Dedham High School teams, who was chosen as president of the Massachusetts State Coaches Association at its recent meeting.

Dick Rockett, whose speech at the banquet was one of the highlights of the evening, has been a member of the Board of Selectmen of the town of Marblehead for the past 13 years. Father Harold F. McDermott has been assigned to St. Ann's Church, Neponset. Father Harold had been stationed in Woburn for over a dozen years. Commander C. Joseph Delaney, MC, USNR, has resumed practice in New York after serving in both the African and Pacific theatres of war.

Father Clarence Macksey has been appointed Director of the Lowell Catholic Charitable Bureau along with his duties as chaplain at Keith Academy in the same city.

Former Army chaplains resuming parish duties are Father Charles Engewald at St. Joseph's, Boston, and Father Willaim Callahan at the Gate of Heaven Church, South Boston.

Lt. Commander Lawrence J. McPeake, USN, who had been missing in the Philippines since March, 1942, is now presumed to be dead by his family. The sympathy of the class is extended to his family.

Our next important date—Sunday, March 31—Laetare Sunday—our annual Communion Breakfast Day. You will hear more about this. And please, please say very definitely that you will or will not be there.

1924

ANTHONY E. LEBLANC
45 Maynard Street, Arlington

 Frank T. Reardon has been discharged from the Army and has returned to the B. F. Goodrich Company. Frank served as a major with the Eighth Air Force in Europe for fourteen months.

Father Charles Foley is out of the Navy Chaplain corps and is now at Our Lady of the Presentation Church, Brighton.

Continuing our program of brief biographies:

John A. Barry is employed as a salesman by the H. Hollander Company, Inc., liquor dealers in Boston. Jack is still single and lives at 88 Norton Street, Dorchester. He served for a while as a member of the U. S. Naval Reserve and following his discharge from the service toured the Midwest and the Pacific Coast area.

John T. Beaver died on May 22, 1944. Requiescat In Pace.

Edmund A. Berger is an engineer on Dial Conversions for the New England Telephone Co. Ed is married and has three children, all boys. He lives at 20 Holly Street, Salem.

Thomas P. Berkeley is employed by the Recreation Commission of the City of Boston. Tom is single and is living at 47 Easton Street, Allston.

Robert J. Bond is associated with Montgomery Ward Company as a Division Manager. He is married, has a family of six children and makes his home at 550 Forest Avenue, Evanston, Ill.

Walter Conway was discharged from the U. S. Naval Reserve on September 16, 1945. He has returned to his real estate and insurance business in Salem. Walter is married and announces that Michael, now 17 months old is a candidate for B.C., class of '65.

Dr. Walter Carroll has recently been elected a Fellow in the American College of Surgeons. Just a few more letters to add to his already impressive signature and a great honor and distinction for one of the most outstanding members of the class.

Les Hourigan was discharged from the Navy on January 22. He had been a lieutenant commander in the intelligence office in Boston. Les has returned to his own investigating business, Underwriters Reports, Inc., 53 Milk Street, Boston.

WILLIAM ARTHUR REILLY
14 Arborway, Jamaica Plain

 It's a boy, Michael, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. James Conway. The sympathy of the class is extended to George Smith upon the death of his father.

Phil Dillon and family are now located in West Newton, having moved recently from Wellesley.

Professor John Collins was the subject of a special interview and Sunday feature story recently on the subject of English.

Bill Doyle has been appointed a member of the Board of Trustees of the Carney Hospital, (even though his nine children were all born at St. Margaret's).

Former Army Chaplains out of the service and back on parish duty are: Father Richard Hawko at St. Leo's, Dorchester, Father Daniel DeCoursey, Our Lady of Lourdes, Jamaica Plain, and Father William Collins, St. Brendan's, Dorchester.

WILLIAM J. CUNNINGHAM
40 Tennyson Street, West Roxbury

 The class held a wonderful 20th anniversary dinner at the University Club, Boston, on January 10. The 57 men present accepted with enthusiasm the committee's plans for the June celebration, including a Communion Breakfast, with a very special speaker (can't tell you now who it is, it's a secret, but he's good), then a two day outing for men only. Present plans call for Friday and Saturday at Coonamasset Ranch in Falmouth, and all this for the sum of $20.00 which includes everything. Already, the committee headed by Joe Beecher reports the sale of 28 tickets. Brother, if you don't get in on this, you're positively missing out on the finest time since the Hotel Mayflower affair back in 1926.

Fred Curley helped Dr. Art Gorman, president, with the dinner arrangements, and Fred provided a beautiful centerpiece of maroon and gold chrysanthemums. Fred still runs the University Club Florist Shop. The chairman called the roll of all those in the service, both absent and present, and then we heard some of the war experiences of fellows like Johnny Miskello, who went ashore on D-Day in France and stayed all the way through. Lt. Comdr. Tom Cookley and Lt. John E. Dorsey revealed their experiences in the Navy and Army, with John pointing the warning finger at racial intolerance. Leo O'Hearn, former sergeant attached to the 8th Air Force told of his work with radar equipment on B-17 bomber groups, and made some comments equivalent in their implication to the devastation of an atomic bomb. Was that dinner an exciting one! Rebuttal to Leo's statements was offered by Johnny Miskello, Fr. Matt Stapleton and Jim Lally. Incidentally, 7 of our clergy members were present. What was the topic that caused the eruption? You should have been there, don't miss the next affair.

Father Walter McCracken, director of the Father Jim Hennessey Mission Club for Men, connected with the Propagation of the Faith, spoke on the purposes and aims of his new club, which is off to a flying start. Father will welcome any new members and he can be reached at 49 Franklin Street, Boston 10.

J. P. "Dick" Murphy, now president of his sugar outfit in New York, came on all the way from the big city, and Jim Hickey was down from Pittsfield. Father Martin Harney, S.J. of the College faculty was our guest of the evening.

John Dooley gave a report on our endowment fund and he will welcome your $5.00 payment on the insurance at 43 Roslin Street, Dorchester. You may, but don't have to make up delinquent payments.

By the way Dr. Art Gorman has another baby boy, born in October. Richard John is the fourth child, and the third son for the Gormans. He is already making calls for the Doctor. Saw Captain Al Fallon in Jamaica Plain last week. Back in Boston after two years in the Army Dental Corps. The class is proud of the part played by Lt. Col. Bill Consodine in handling the legal aspects of Manhattan Project, the story of the atomic bomb. Leo O'Hearn saw Comdr. Tom Herlihy in England and Tom had bumped into Bill Consodine several times in England and on the continent.

Ted Drury, vice-president of the State Street Investment Corporation and former commander of the Framingham Civil Air Patrol Squadron, is the new president of the Aeronautic Ass'n of Boston.

Father James Shoughnessey, for so many years stationed in Pennsylvania, is now at St. James', Boston. Don't forget the 20th annual celebration of the class of 1926, in June. Contact Dr. Gorman at 18 Willard Street, Newton for your $20.00 ticket. Never again will you get so much for your money.

FRANCIS X. SULLIVAN
51 Presentation Road, Brighton

☞ Our annual class dinner was held on November 27 at the Hotel Lenox. Thirty-six members were present. The most encouraging feature of the event was the appearance of some "lost sheep," and the presence of a few of our members returning from the Army or Navy. Among those whom we hadn't seen for some time were Jim Connors, Joe Aleckna, Charles (Steve) Bridey, Dr. Frank Moran, Jack Conway, Harold Jenkins, W. Stanley Siroka, Bill Murphy, Tom Hayes and Cornelius "Tubber" Cronin.

Jim Cotter, father of four children, is now vice-principal of Chelsea High School. Vin Carolan also has four youngsters.

"Tubber" Cronin, 42 months in the Navy, gave a stirring oration about the war in the Pacific and stressed particularly the work of the missionaries. He met Bishop Wade in Hollandia.

Joe Aleckna, handsome as ever, appeared for the first time since graduation. He was a gunnery officer in the Navy in which he served for three years.

Howard Buckley remarked that the vicissitudes of class politics had landed him from the head of the table to the foot. However, dame dollar has smiled brightly on Howard's building activities.

We understand it takes two Yankees to outsmart W. Stanley Siroka from Bradford on the Merrimac. But he ought to leave his jokes in Bradford the next time.

John Eaton has been in the Fleet Records Office in San Francisco with the rating of a Navy chief.

Jim Connors was in the service for 25 months. He is an insurance broker, still interested in church music, spending his spare time looking for a house to rent.

Steve Bridey, after a brilliant Navy career, is back at Cambridge High and Latin.

Dr. Frank Moran managed to get a few hours off from a practice that keeps him extremely busy.

Father Joe McCall missed the dinner because of a heavy cold. He is quite active at his vocation, the Carney Hospital, and his avocation, the House of the Angel Guardian.

The U. S. Army has engaged the services of Jack Conway as a contract negotiator. His job is to handle contract termination settlements and surplus property disposals. Still single.

Harold Jenkins is a supervisor of construction and maintenance of bridges and buildings for the New Haven Railroad. He recently moved to Commonwealth Avenue, Chestnut Hill.

We were all happy to see Bill Murphy who is the manager of the Reading Division of Goodall Sanford, a concern manufacturing coated textile fabrics. Out of the Army and in from the land of Thoreau came Tom Hayes. He's a lawyer and unmarried.

The round table discussion was brief, sprightly and loaded with laughs as usual. Bill Ohrenberger and Jack Buckley haven't lost any of their "stuff." Father Bob Hilton represented the clergy.

Father Martin Harney gave a little talk on the "Future of Boston College." Lt. Joseph W. Lyons, ChC, USNR, is now stationed at the Amphibious Training Base at Coronado, California, after 22 months overseas.

L. Norris Luddy returned from overseas duty with the Army in November and is now a civilian.

Larry Thornton has been discharged from the service after being in the Navy for 43 months. He participated in the invasions of Guam, Leyte, and Lingayen.

Charles H. Hayden has been released from the Army Air Corps and has returned as submaster of the Norwood High School and been appointed director of the newly created Department of Placement.

Father James Dunford is now at St. Mark's, Dorchester. Father Dunford, a lieutenant colonel in the Army Chaplain Corps, was released from the service recently.

Commander Daniel A. MacIsaac, USNR, has been assigned the command of the Martha's Vineyard Naval Auxiliary Station.

Next Reunion? April.

LLOYD L. DOYLE

279 Bowdoin Street, Dorchester

 The mid-winter Class Reunion was held at the University Club, Wednesday evening, February 6, 1946. Over 50 members of the class attended. A number of these members recently returned from the services. Rev. James Doyle, Director of the Catholic Charitable Bureau, gave a very interesting and inspiring talk.

Dan Driscoll was Chairman of the general committee. Entertainment Committee: Fred "Bo" McMenimen, Andrew Sullivan, George Corcoran, John Henry Morris and Norman Steele. Ticket Committee: Jack Doherty, Ken Minihan, Fred L'Ecuyer and "Babe" Daley.

The Class Secretary, Pete Carey, worked very zealously in arranging the affair. His story telling was a "natural"—especially the "Southern Comfort" one. Incidentally, Pete has opened up his own Advertising Agency on Stuart Street, Boston, having decided not to make the sojourn to the Coast. He was afraid the Hollywood magnates would be too enticing—especially the stars! Pete is still a bachelor.

Tommy Russo, our Cecil DeMille, came down from St. Johnsbury, Vermont. Tommy manages a couple of theatres in that territory.

The next issue of the "Alumni News" will carry a complete biographical description of all members who attended the Reunion.

The Class was deeply grieved to learn of the untimely death of George Hurley who was on from Washington visiting his family.

Father John Callahan, former Army chaplain, is stationed at St. Joseph's, Wakefield.

Captain Alexander Ross, MC, USA, has resumed the practice of medicine in Minneapolis after 3½ years in the Army, one year of which was in the Southwest Pacific.

Commander Joe Doyle, MC, USNR, terminated his appointment as gynecologist and obstetrician-in-chief at the Chelsea Naval Hospital on January 1. He has resumed the private practice of gynecology and obstetrics at 20 Commonwealth Avenue, Boston. Herb Stokinger was presented a wrist watch in December from the captain and members of Milton Academy's football team which had an undefeated season.

John O'Loughlin has been discharged from the Army and has returned to Somerville High School.

JOHN J. SPENCER

125 Corey Street, West Roxbury

 The annual class dinner was held at the Hotel Lenox on the usual Thursday after Christmas date with a pre-war gathering of more than 45 classmates in attendance. The class was pleased to welcome back many of its members from the service, including several of our chaplains.

Captains Frank McDonnell, James Mc Manus and Charles Glennon of the Army Chaplain Corps were with us for the first time since the outbreak of hostilities. All have been decorated, and Father Glennon seems to have recovered completely from the effects of life in a German prison camp. Missing in action, he was discovered a prisoner just a few days after his classmates took part in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass for his safety.

Fathers Paul McManus and Harry Butler of the Society of Jesus, and Father John Frawley of St. Columbkille's, Brighton, were also with us. Father Paul brought encouraging reports on the future of the College, and Father Harry discussed the work of the mission band.

Also back from the service were Lt. Colonel John Mungovan from China after five years in the Army; Captain Joseph Cavanagh, now doing laboratory work with the Cobot Company; Lt. John Parrell, who is serving as a training officer for the Veterans' Administration; Staff Sgt. John Gale; Captain Kenneth Brown of the Army Medical Corps; Lt. Thomas Leo O'Connell of the Navy Medical Corps;

Captain J. Lloyd Carnegie, USMC, who saw the Holy Cross game for the first time in many years; Captain Bob O'Brien, navigation officer and instructor in the Army Air Corps, now teaching mathematics at Boston Latin; Major Ed Murray, now out of the service after duty in Africa and Italy. Word was received about Captain Joe Mahoney, Army Chaplain, on duty in Texas after service in Europe; Sgt. Alfred B. Taylor, who is in France; "Kewpie" Kilroy, still in the Pacific area with the Army; Major Wilfred O'Leary, director of administration and services in Texas; Lt. William A. Hafferty, Navy Medical Corps, who has taken over the practice of the late Dr. Frederick Lyons at 51 High Street, Charlestown.

Others present were Atty. William J. LaFay, Henry Kievenaar, the Gas Company tycoon; Atty. Edward U. Lee, assistant clerk in the Superior Civil Court; Joseph B. Tondorf; Lawrence B. Fennell, Salem school man; Bernie Kilroy, successful English High School mentor; Louis Scolponetti, of the Internal Revenue department, Henry Cook, the magazine man; Vin Roberts of the wool trade; Atty Pat Cahill of the OPA; A. Barr Dolan, the insurance live-wire; Henry Keenan, who has just been promoted to the post of assistant master of the Thomas Gardner district of the Boston school system; ex-presidents Robert Buck and Edward Murphy, both educators; Leo C. Haley; Atty. Joe Donahue; Bill Miller, the school teacher; Brighton Bill Ryan of the Boston Elevated Legal department; Joe Sheehan, the teacher whose class twins are real young ladies now; Joe Dolan, who is doing accounting work for Federal agencies; Frank Daley, who is in the school supplies business; Dr. William F. Flynn, the surgeon, our honorary class president; Atty. Henry Michael Leen, who is associated in practice with another old-if not so bald-eagle, U. S. Atty. Edmund Brandon; ex-president Gene McLaughlin, teacher and realtor; William Connolly of the Secret Service, who directed arrangements for the protection of F.D.R. on the occasion of his last campaign trip to Boston; Wilfred Peltier; Paul Donovan, teaching at Watertown High School.

Officers elected by the time honored method were John J. (Jerry) Maho- ney, chairman of the Appellate Tax Board, president, whose frantic appeals that another be named president met with the fate reserved for so many litigants before his judicial board; Bill LaFay, vice-president; Joe Sheehan, treasurer; Henry Leen, master-at-arms; Father Harry Butler, secretary; Bill Connolly, auditor.

A proposal to present the College a special gift in June, and each year until our 20th anniversary is reached in 1949, each year's gift to be added to the grand total of the anniversary gift, was voted unanimously. Attorneys Lee and Leen were appointed co-chairmen of the committee, with John Parrell, Vincent Roberts and Jerry Mahoney as their assistants.

Don MacDonald is principal of School No. 1 of Lawrence, L. I., New York. He also operates a summer camp for boys.

Pete Dolan is teaching at Boston Latin.

Lt. John Parrell would like the veterans of the class to know that he is a training officer with the Veterans' Administration at 17 Court Street, Boston, ready and pleased to give any possible assistance to the old Eagles. He has charge of 83 disabled veterans and 195 G.I.'s at the College. Since this is written in January, there will be many more registered by the time the NEWS appears.

Lt. Francis P. Walsh was home in December after two years in the European theatre of operations. He has returned to Europe.

Father Joseph Regan has been transferred to St. Patrick's Church, East Cambridge. Father Justin Durocher, former lieutenant commander in the Navy Chaplain Corps, has resumed parish duties at St. Agnes', Arlington. George E. Connor is Editor of the Somerville Journal-Press.

Your correspondent has taken over new duties as Director of Public Relations for the Port of Boston Authority at the Custom House, and expects to spend an interesting time as this board, for the first time with real authority and funds, begins development of the Port of Boston.

Lt. Comdr. Francis J. McNamara, MC, USN, has been elected a fellow in the American College of Surgeons. He is now on active duty with the Medical Corps in the Pacific.

Lt. Comdr. Ed Waliackas got out of the Navy in January. He will resume his practice of dentistry in Lynn.

Condolences are extended to Father John Fitzgerald in the death of his mother.

George Donaldson, veteran, has returned to the College as director of the Placement Bureau.

JEREMIAH J. McCARTHY

61 Sycamore Avenue, Brockton

Our annual dinner was held on December 27 at Frank Geary's folks' restaurant. It was a pleasure to have so many members present who had been in the service. The speech of the evening was made by John McSweeney. Jack Hayes retired as president, succeeded by Tom Kelly who had done a very efficient job as secretary on the occasion of our 15th anniversary last year. Handling the secretarial end of it for the coming year will be your correspondent.

Attending the dinner were: Lew Carey, Major Tom Cavanaugh, Arthur "Cesty" Cestaro, Fred Cone, Judge John Connelly, Father Victor, C.P., Henry Dowd, "Buck" Doyle, Lt. Commander Bernie Dunn, Jack Dwyer, Adrian Edwards, Joe Fallon, Chaplains George Gallivan and Ed Galvin, Frank Geary, John Grandfield, John Groden, Jack Hayes, "Red" Hoban, Dave Hackman, State Treasurer John Hurley, Joe Kelley, Tom Kelly, Al McCarthy, John McSweeney, Charlie Murphy, Father "Luke" McGowan, Leon O'Brien, Dan O'Connell, Roger O'Sullivan, Tom Perkins, Lt. Joe Pszeny, Jim Reagan, Father John Ryan, S.J., Joe Solnick, Dr. Garrett Sullivan, Dr. Bill Sullivan, Frank Tallino, Joe Welch and Joe Whitehead. Reporting from San Francisco is Dean Ed Hogan who mentions seeing Bill Beale out there now and then.

Father Joe Gough, Army chaplain, is on Luzon.

Father Eugene Burns, S.J., is on the faculty at Fairfield Prep in Connecticut.

Greetings from Seattle came from Nick Maffeo. He is now the father of two boys, 5½ and 2½.

Leo Moran is the office manager of the Middle Atlantic district of the Westinghouse Electric Corporation in Philadelphia. His home is in Ardmore, Pa.

Jim O'Neill has been in the Army almost four years and at the present time is in Germany.

Father Tom Burke, Navy chaplain, is stationed at Santa Ana, California.

John Coleman is still on active duty with the Army in France.

Lt. Bill Trainor is at Pearl Harbor. Former class president John Convery recently left there and is now home wearing civilians.

Bill Syran regretted missing the class dinner, but work in the broadcasting game in Boston keeps him busy.

Lt. Frank Lyons, USNR, has received two citations for performance of duty in the Iwo Jima campaign. He was in San Francisco in January expecting further duty in the Pacific. Frank became the father of a daughter last July.

Lt. Jim Neas, USNR, is on duty in California.

Dr. Bill Green is at a Naval post on Guam.

Lt. Bill McDonald, USNR, is in Tokyo Bay, aboard the cruiser Pasadena. He hopes to be back this month.

Dr. Jack Foley, a lieutenant in the Navy Medical Corps, is in China.

Father John Ryan is still in the Philippines.

Where is Chaplain Dan Kelleher? He had been stationed at Wright Field, Ohio, and then Tinker Field, Oklahoma.

Father Leo Muldoon, S.J., is stationed at the Sacred Heart Church, Highgate, Jamaica, British West Indies.

Bill Tracy is with the Veterans' Administration at 17 Court Street, Boston.

John Grandfield is engaged to Miss Mary A. Sullivan of Dorchester.

Selling Buicks in Framingham is "Buck" Doyle.

Drs. Bill Sullivan and Tom Cavanaugh have opened offices in Boston. Bill is at 23 Bay State Road.

Getting back to the dinner Judge John "Boots" Connelly was the man of the hour. John was recently appointed judge of the Juvenile Court by Governor Tobin. His talk to the class members on the causes and results of juvenile delinquency will be long remembered. Once again, congratulations on your appointment.

John McSweeney's talk was worthy of a Clover Club stage. John is superintendent of the Parole Division of the Massachusetts Training School.

135 Medford Street, Arlington

The most successful class reunion since our graduation was held at the Hotel Lenox on January 20. Many of our classmates whom we had not seen in years were on hand and joyfully welcomed, as were many veterans who had just returned from the service.

Among those in attendance were ex-Sgt. Charlie Hoyes, Lynn's most eligible bachelor, who had just returned to the U. S. after running "the best A.P.O. in Europe."

Ted Cass of the Bureau of Immigration of Naturalization is now the father of three children.

Newlywed George Evans, clerk of the Roxbury Court was on hand, appearing just the same as in 1931 except for the area around the temples.

Bachelors and ex-G. I.'s Al Flannery and Joe Whelan attended.

Jim Cullinone, East Boston trucking contractor, has three children.

Al Thibault reported from Bliss, Idaho, where he is Superintendent of Schools. The North Shore again led the way in attendance with Fr. Bill McLeon, Dr. George Donahue, Frank Johnson and Bernie Dullea among the diners. Fr. Kenealy, S.J. (Lt. Comdr., USNR, and Dean of the Law School) recounted some very interesting experiences in the Pacific, where he had the good fortune to be on the USS California with Kevin Hern. Fr. Kenealy will be remembered as the Mr. Kenealy who conducted the stimulating Ethics quizzes in 1930-31.

Charlestown was represented by Harry Sheehee, Jack Greene and Eddie Aaron. Among those in attendance were Ed Connolly, John Shork, Fr. Art Norton, Frank Romeo, George O'Connell, Tom Crosby, Herb O'Connor, John Walsh, Art Reardon, Dr. John Rattigan, Pete Sanford, Charlie Brooks, George Rowlinson, Jack Mullaney, John J. Sullivan, Leicester St. nee Wallingford Rd.), Fr. Frank Meehan, Fr. Maurice Whelton, Tom (Giving is loving) Maguire, Jimmy Gallagher, Al Fitzgerald, Al Morelli, Andy Anderson, Art Conway, Ralph Cochrane, Jack Chisholm, Paul Eaton, Jokey Shea, Dr. Bill Helfrich, Dr. Jack Healey and Ed. Leahy.

Joe Callahan teaches Commercial subjects at South Boston High. He's married, has one child, and coached the Jay Vees in football there last fall.

Ed Butters teaches Commercial subjects at the High School of Commerce. He's married and has two children Father Emile O. Hemond is now stationed at St. John the Evangelist Church, Newton.

Tommy Meagher has just been promoted to Submaster.

Ed Trueman peeks over a desk at the Theodore Roosevelt school.

John Corr Mullaney is the backbone of the staff of the Lewis School.

Dudley Walsh is at Boston Trade School.

Jack Lennon is at the Jos. Barnes School.

George O'Connell teaches at the Washington Irving School. He coaches basketball and track and was line coach at English this past year.

Incidentally, the Executive Board of the Intermediate men teachers has a strong '31 tinge with Frank Romeo, Tom Dolan, John Mulloney and George O'Connell attempting to guide the destinies of the intermediate man. Outside of Boston, Frank Johnson teaches Math at Peabody High; Art Conway has charge of guidance in the Everett Schools; Tom O'Brien teaches in Watertown, Jack O'Brien is Principal at Hopkinton and Tom McCook at Marlboro.

1932

JOHN P. CONNOR

28 Dickinson Road, Brighton

Gunner E. Hough was discharged from the Army in November. He had served as librarian of the Eastern Flying Training Command.

Father Francis Finnegan has been transferred to St. Joseph's Church, Roxbury.

Jack McCarthy, formerly of South Boston, now of Dorchester, is in the insurance business. He is also a city assessor for Boston. In addition, he is a basketball official and coach of all sports at Cathedral High School.

The annual class reunion was resumed when a dinner was held at the Hotel Lenox on December 19.

On January 5 the class sponsored a Solemn High Pro-Burial Mass for our classmates who gave their lives in World War II. It was held at the Cathedral of the Holy Cross. Remembered were Major George Nicholson, AAC, Lt. Thomas Barry, MC, USNR, Lt. Frederick Kiley, USA, and Lt. Commander John Murphy, USNR. The officers of the Mass were our own classmates: celebrant, Rev. Frederick J. Minigon; deacon, Rev. James T. Cotter; sub-deacon, Rev. John M. O'Brien; cross bearer, Rev. Vincent J. Mackay; thurifer, Rev. Paul J. Rattigan, acolytes, Rev. Leo V. McGann and Rev. Edmund Buckley; eulogist, Rev. Francis W. Finnegan. Seated within the sanctuary were Rev. Louis J. Gallagher, S.J., former president of the College, and Rev. Anthony Eiardi, S.J.

Pete Quinn is back in Boston again and is with William A. Filene's in the Labor Relations department.

George Burke is out of the Army and is back in business with his brother running a package store in Newton Centre.

It's nice to see Allan Byrne back in town.

Released by the Navy, Paul Goode is once again practicing Law.

Dr. Frank O'Connor has reopened his office after serving with the Army in the E.T.O.

Dr. John F. McManus is a captain in the Army stationed at the Waltham Regional Hospital.

Jim Heggie was recently discharged from the Navy.

Frank Curtin has been discharged from the Navy and is back in the insurance business operating his own general agency at 33 Broad Street, Boston.

Ed Hurley is also out of the Navy. He is teaching in the Cambridge school system.

Paul McSweeney still another ex-Navy man, is now with the Columbian National Life Insurance Company in Boston.

1933

CHARLES W. O'BRIEN
1561 Centre Street, Roslindale

 Congratulations to Johnny Ryan on the birth of a daughter, now a year old, and our apologies for being so belated with the news.

Also to another Chelsea boy, John Patterson, who migrated to Washington, D. C., married a girl from the Midwest and is recently a proud daddy. I have it on the authority of the third member of the Chelsea triumvirate (look the word up, you lugs!), Billy Murdock, that part of John's duties in the State Dept. consisted of preparation of Sec'y Hull's testimony before the Pearl Harbor Investigating Committee.

Our deep sympathy is extended to Lt. Col. Johnny Gramzow, USA, on the death of his brother who was killed in a trolley accident in Marseilles, France, last October. At the time Johnny was stationed in Paris. After having been continually away from Boston since he joined the F. B. I., John Desmond is now stationed at 10 Post Office Square.

Tom Lyons conducts a thriving undertaking business in Newton and is the proud possessor of three daughters, named Maureen, Geraldine and Bernardine, respectively. Tom should compare notes with Frank De Freitas, who has a family of three boys, the most recent one having been born December 20, 1945.

On Dec. 19, 1945 in the Green Room of the Hotel Lenox the Class held its Second Annual Winter Carnival. Those who thought that the Class Committee was kidding in the notice of the dinner now are disabused of that idea. Dogsleds were very much in order with the winter's worst storm picking that particular day and night to strike. Among the new faces present were: John Brennon, who takes the curse off his connection with the iniquitous Bureau of Internal Revenue by doing school football officiating—Jim Connolly, who is just out of the Navy and back with Twentieth Century Fox, also iniquitous—Vin Cosgrove, who chauffeured several of the boys home and then got stuck in a drift himself and had to abandon his car—Henry Fitzgerald, just back from a Pacific bivouac with the Leathernecks—Lt. Col. Bob Grandfield, who is now stationed at Cushing General in Framingham—John Kaveny, just out of the Army after many months of service in the European theatre and looking a little lean as a consequence—Larry McDonnell, also only recently back from overseas—Joe McGivern, who is now associated with the Home Life Insurance Company in Boston—J. Hubert McLoughlin, simply exuding Blue Cross good cheer—Denny Ryan, who is back in civvies and resuming the practice of the law in Quincy with Attorney Raymond F. Barrett.

Congratulations, belated though they be, to Leo Flynn, who is married and has a six months old son; news travels slowly out of Hardwick.

Added starters in the field of first born sons are to be credited to Connie Dalton, who is out of the service and back on the job for the Herald-Traveler (is that adjective "iniquitous" outworn yet?) and to John Carr, also out of the service and now associated with Radio Marine Corp. of America. Capt. Larry Bouchard has resumed the practice of dentistry in Salem (hard day at the orifice and all that sort of thing, you know).

Capt. Edward G. Carey, MC, USA, is stationed in Korea.

Lt. Col. John Dobbin, USMC, was home on furlough during Christmas time. Col. Dobbin, who was air commander of the 1st Marine Group of the carrier Block Island, has reported for further duty at Cherry Point, N. C.

Lt. Ralph Ward, USNR, returned from Iowa in December. He is now with the NROTC unit at Harvard.

Al Landrigan has been commissioned a lieutenant in the Army. He is a reconditioning officer at Tilton Hospital, Fort Dix, N. J.

The second annual retreat of the Class is scheduled for March 29-31 at Campion Hall. About 15 have signified their intention of attending to date. Make reservations promptly with Chairman Tim Sullivan (Blu. 9523).

1934

DANIEL I. CRONIN
3 Laird Road, West Medford

 Thomas Callahan is teaching in the Peabody School System after seeing service as a captain with the Field Artillery in Italy.

John F. P. McCarthy is engaged to Miss Mary Rose Doherty of Jamaica Plain.

David Meaney was discharged from the Navy in December. He had served for two years, and was last stationed on Okinawa.

Father Francis Doherty is now stationed at St. Angela's, Mattapan.

Ken Carey is the father of three girls, the last Catherine Marie, born December 18.

Father James Sheehan writes from Rapid City, South Dakota, that he hopes to get back to Boston sometime for a class reunion.

Congratulations to Jim Deary who has resigned from the F. B. I. to assume an important position with the Coca-Cola Company in Michigan.

Some of the class members have put aside service uniforms and returned to civilian avocations. The following changes have come to the attention of your reporter.

Tim Donohue is general counsel for the Accident and Casualty Co.

Phil Kelly has opened a real estate and insurance office at 10 State Street, Boston.

Neal Holland is back with the Boston & Maine legal department.

Frank Lyons and George Keleher are at Lever Brothers in Cambridge.

Don Driscoll is still on terminal leave but plans to return to his managers job with Lincoln Stores, Inc.

Three classmates have reopened law offices: Jim Fay and Bob Glennon in Boston, Bob Sullivan in Cambridge. With the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation is Jim Sullivan. Jim was married earlier this month.

Al Bowman is with the Boston Beer Company.

Jack Dacey is senior accountant in the State Department of Mental Health.

Captain Frank Russell will stay in the Army until 1947. He is Post Assistant Personnel Officer at Camp Devens.

John T. Sheehan has announced the arrival of a son. John is employed by Squibbs Chemical Company, and lives in New York City.

Joe Donovan has opened an optometrist's office at 101 Tremont Street. Can you top this? Ed Gough, Joe Killelea and "Jiggs" Lillis each has four children.

Anyone wishing to borrow a shaver or two for income tax purposes can reach Ed at the State Welfare Department, Joe at Hyde Park (he is on leave from the Navy), and "Jiggs" at the Simpson Shipbuilding Co.

Fred Delaney was recently appointed headmaster at Meredith High School, Meredith, New Hampshire.

Bill Giblin has again returned to Paris to carry on his work with the American Red Cross after having had the honor of an audience with the Holy Father.

Father Merrill Greene, S.J., is again stationed at Boston College.

Father George McCarron, S.J., is at Fairfield Preparatory School, Fairfield, Connecticut.

Dave Connelly has been discharged from the service and is now making his home in Rockland, Massachusetts. The following men are reported as still in the service: Ralph Ambrose, Leo Chane, Gene Donaldson, Chic Featherstone, Pete McCauley, Frank O'Loughlin, John Ryan, Ray Towle, and Frank Zimmerman.

Dr. Edward Barry has been discharged from the Army and has resumed the practice of dentistry in Framingham. Eddie served as a captain in the European Theatre.

William J. Sweeney is Probation officer at the Waltham District Court. Comdr. William J. Dougherty, M.C., USN, was promoted to that rank recently. He is serving as commanding officer of a large unit operating in Southern Europe.

Lt. Paul Dugan, USNR, is expected home soon from the Pacific. Congratulations to Pat Lynch who was married to the former Pauline A. Coyne (Intown School, '45) on December 29. Pat is a rubber chemist associated with the Electric Hose and Rubber Company of Wilmington, Delaware, and lives in New Castle, Delaware.

Joe Curran is with the Veterans' Administration.

1936

THOMAS H. D. MAHONEY
51 Ellery Street, Cambridge

✠ Major William B. Colpoys returned home from Europe in November. He was overseas for 20 months and is now discharged.

The class had a highly successful reunion at the Harvard Club on February 18 with 63 in attendance. A committee headed by Joe Keating was chosen to formulate plans for our tenth anniversary in June.

Captain Joseph J. Ecker, Jr., was discharged before Christmas. He served with the Quartermaster Corps and was overseas for more than a year.

Captain William E. Baxter is stationed at Newark Army Air Field with the Atlantic Overseas Air Technical Service Command.

Frederick P. O'Connell has been admitted to the Massachusetts Bar.

Father Albert Powers is now at St. James', Boston.

Lt. Thomas H. Killion, USA, was married in December to the former Miss Gertrude Murdock (Emmanuel) of Everett.

Fred Roche has been appointed assistant secretary in Governor Tobin's office. Fred saw service as a captain in the Army in England, North Africa, Sicily, Italy and Germany where he prosecuted General Anton Dostler of the German Army.

Captain Francis W. McCarthy, AAC, is stationed at Wright Field, Ohio, engaged in secret research and development on radar equipment.

Joe Killion is out of the service after 28 months overseas in the E.T.O. He is in the insurance business, associated with O'Brien, Russell and Company.

Enjoying the excellent music and the pleasures of our first Alumni dance since 1941 were Paul Power, Henry Beauregard, George Goodwin, "Red" Broderick and Tom Mahoney. Henry has been "frozen" for the time being by the Navy. Compensation has been forthcoming in the form of an extra half-stripe and a trip to sunny California for temporary duty. Back in mufti, Paul has resumed his task of being a legal luminary with one of the big Boston firms.

Saw Joe Fitzgerald leaving Fenway Park after the Cross game.

Observed watching Alma Mater's return to basketball in the thrilling Manhattan game were Father Al Powers, Jerry Pagliuca and Bill Hayward. Congratulations are in order for Bill on his return to the post of publicity director at the Heights.

Joe Ranieri is out of the Coast Guard and has returned to his teaching position at the Cambridge Boys' Vocational School.

Tim Ready is the proud father of a future star performer.

Toddy Mehigon, the old running mate of "Red" Martin, is home from the Aleutians after several years and is telling some tall tales about Alaska.

A most welcome Christmas present for Ed Berro was his arrival in Boston from overseas on December 25.

Pat McCarthy, still in the Coast Guard, was last heard from on the Pacific coast.

Tom Brennan came back to see his old school, B. C. High, perform several times on the gridiron last fall.

The ubiquitous Father Jim Keating recently turned up in Cambridge where he gave an illustrated talk to St. Paul's Book Club.

As one clergyman to another, Father John Carroll had Father Bob Sullivan address one of his parish clubs on his experiences as a Jap prisoner in the Philippines.

Emulating the success of the two politicians mentioned here last time, John O'Connor, the successful insurance man, was elected a city councilor in Quincy. Nice work, John!

Due for discharges in the near future are Navy officers Frank Mahoney and Joe Keating, while Lt. Comdr. Ted Galligan is already enjoying his terminal leave.

Brent Gordon has been transferred from the Coast to Boston and is once again located in the Federal Building.

Ed Fitzmaurice's school appears to be on the way to the completion of a successful maiden year.

Bill Collins, recently discharged from the Navy, has returned to the faculty of the Business School at the Heights.

1937

RICHARD A. PARIS
567 South Street, Quincy 69

 Congratulations from the class are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph K. Nash on the birth of a baby girl, Paula Ann, born in November. Incidentally, Ralph's football team from Colt High School in Bristol, R. I., won the Class C championship there.

Via air mail from Wellesley Hills we hear that Joe Murphy is with the firm of Babson's Reports, Inc. Joe is thinking of starting his own investment counseling business, and he would like anyone who is interested to contact him.

Roy Barry is now stationed in Japan. Since Roy left B. C., he has managed to fit in eight months' of Engineering at the University of Pennsylvania along with acquiring a Pre-Med degree at Yale, which is something in itself. He is expected home before next June rolls around.

Angie Afentakis is still assisting a group of research physiologists at the Harvard Medical School. Angie writes that he enjoys his work there quite well.

John Kenney informs us that the boys from B. C.'s 1945-II are well represented at the Seminary. In his class we have Chet Hankins, Fred McGowan and John Jennings. In the class behind John are such notables as Jack Thomas, Tony Laurano, Jack Lynch, Stan Miaszewicz and, of course, Jack O'Keefe.

Jake Driscoll is now teaching at English High, while his buddy, Tom Bilo-deau, is still a mystery man over there in Charlestown.

Jim Rowan has been transferred from English High School to Roxbury Memorial High School. Teaching, along with being Commander of a Legion Post in Dorchester, does not leave Jim with too much free time. John O'Keefe writes from Saint John's Seminary telling of his appreciation of the fellows showing up at the farewell party tendered him on the occasion of his entering the Seminary. He says that he shall never forget that night.

Frank Vetere is assigned to the office of the Chaplain, U. S. Naval Base, Port Hueneme, California.

Cpl. Bill Burke is at present stationed in Panama and Lt. Frank Kelley is at Camp Maxey in the Lone Star State.

Now that the Year Book has been signed and delivered, Bob LeBlanc and Archie LaFerriere can devote their full time to teaching. After seeing the book, there is no doubt that Archie and Bob should be congratulated on a fine job, done under such difficult conditions.

Bob Murphy is still at Boston University's Law School, along with Charlie Phillips.

Jack Fahey is now in the employ of Carter's Ink Company over in Cambridge. He works there days while attending Boston University's School of Business Administration nights.

Pvt. J. Bradley Bowen is back in the States following lengthy service overseas.

Bernie O'Brien was home for New Year's. He has been discharged from the Navy and will return to New York University in the capacity of a civilian, where he will continue his dental studies.

George Fournier was home over Christmas. He is stationed in Nebraska, in an Army hospital. He has high hopes that he will be transferred to Camp Devens in the not too distant future.

Bill Murphy is still in the personnel department of the Liggett Stores.

Joe LaRossa can still be found in Boston on any night that there is a hockey game.

Ernie Damon is reportedly doing just as well at Tufts Medical School as he did when he was at the Heights.

Joe Saunders was home over Christmas. He is expected to get a well-earned six months' vacation from Temple University's Medical School, beginning in March.

Tony Bruno is still at the Heights, three days a week, working for his Master's degree.

Paul Hoar is now teaching at Lowell High School.

Ray Lynch, wounded twice, has been discharged from the Army. He fought in Normandy, Northern France, the Rhineland and Central Europe.

Cpl. Ed Murphy writes from the Rhineland area stating that he expects to remain in Europe with the 84th Division until February.

Ph.M 2/c Frank Lewis was home on leave in December.

Sgt. Daniel J. Dorman, Jr., is now with the 989th F. A. at Camp Chicago, Rheims, France. Dan enlisted in January, 1943, and went overseas with the famed 75th Infantry Division, with which he saw action in the Belgian Bulge, France, Holland and Germany. He wears three battle stars on his E.T.O. ribbon, in addition to the Combat Infantryman's Badge and the Good Conduct Medal. He plans to resume his studies at the College upon his return.

William Fenton was discharged from the Navy January 19.

George Mitchell has been discharged from the Navy after participating in 13 Pacific battles.

Ensign W. Gerald Burbine, USNR, was married recently to the former Miss M. Lorraine Murphy of Brockton.

BUSINESS SCHOOL

1942

FRANCIS X. MURPHY

225 Commonwealth Avenue, Boston

☛ The fourth annual reunion dinner of the class was held on December 26, at the Hotel Gardner, Boston, and was attended by 28 members, a new record. Father Kelly, Mr. Drummey and Major King addressed the class, and the latter was unanimously elected an honorary member of the class. Charlie Savage was elected chairman of the class, under a plan adopted to further the future interests of the class, and Frank Murphy, class secretary. Next year the latter will succeed the chairman and a new secretary will be elected by the class.

Lt. Jim Barnicle is assistant gunnery officer on a newly commissioned ship.

Lt. John Brennan freezing in Cleveland while terminating contracts for the Navy.

Tom Clark, home from Europe, and visiting Warrant Officer Fred and Nancy Keefe in Philadelphia.

Walter Colbert has a daughter and is back at the Heights, with Joe McCarron a few seats away.

Jim Cronin is another civilian back in business at Jim's Place.

Lt. Walter Deveney was last seen with a bulge on each hip, looking like a Navy blimp, but running a close second to Bill Dynan.

John Toner and Tom Grady back in Clinton with the former claiming to own a new suit, but he won't tell where it came from.

A few proud fathers are Dick Grainger, who plans to work in New York and attend Fordham Law School, John Keefe, Fred Sliney, and yours truly.

Lt. Ed McCormick and his bride have headed for Panama (it's all right, fellas, the Navy sent him).

John Keane is another civilian and, of all things, teaching accounting.

Still overseas—Bob Kenney, Bob Maher, John Kelley, Bill Doonan; John

Gibbons, and a few others who haven't kept us informed.

Lt. Tom McDonald is seeing the boys home with the troop train section, Camp Patrick Henry, Virginia.

Lt. John Butler is stationed on a transport hauling the boys from the Orient to the States. His ship is the "Admiral Eberle."

A partial list of those now looking for suits (note to clothiers, no kidding) are Henry McConville, Fred Sliney, Tom McMahon, Jim Reilly, and Paul Salipante. If you only have a few clean shirts, call anyhow.

John O'Connor managed to swing a tour of the Emerald Isle while on the Army payroll.

Jim O'Connor—a junior executive with Lever Brothers.

Jim Sullivan is an accountant with John Hancock.

Father Steve Shea was unable to attend the reunion because of illness, but should have recovered quickly, if the well-wishes of the gang were any help.

Lt. Howard Murray was home on leave in November. He is stationed at Pensacola, Florida.

Lt. John Glennon is aboard the USS Biloxi in Tokyo Bay.

Arthur Curry is a cost accountant for the H. P. Hood Company in Charlestown.

A vote of thanks from the class to Charlie Savage for his work during the "war years."

Condolences are extended to Walter Fitzgerald in the death of his mother.

Lt. Bob Rehling is with the Medical department at Camp Edwards.

Sgt. Frank ("Scoop") Farry is in South Carolina with an armored division.

Dave Sullivan writes from Watertown that since his discharge he is one of the great mass of returned vets, and is looking forward to going back to England to marry a young lady he met while serving there.

George Dimond was discharged from the Navy in October. At present he is taking a course in accounting at Boston University night school, while working for an accounting firm in Boston. George saw service on a battleship and while in Trinidad last year, ran into Lt. (jg) Ed Linehan and Marty Underwood.

Tom O'Connor's mother writes that Tom is now a S/Sgt. with the 63d Malaria Control Unit, at present stationed in Japan. He has been overseas two years and expects to be coming home soon.

Lt. Tom Tullie, USMC, has just returned to this country from Japan, and is looking forward to seeing his 14-month-old daughter for the first time.

Your correspondent saw Jim Harvey, recently discharged, a short time ago at the Ice Capades, looking as fit as ever and waiting for Spring when he can try out the old golf clubs again.

Jim ("Poppy") Kelly was discharged November 8 after two years' service overseas in France and Germany. He worked at the Separation Center in Salt Lake City prior to his discharge.

A note from Frank Reade, ye olde managing editor of the Heights, says that after his discharge he intends to brush up on his accounting at Bentley's night school and look for a position in Boston.

Ed Forristall is in New York working for a construction company, doing investigation work in insurance and trucking. Ed has been married since last September.

A letter from Sgt. Jack Martin reveals that he is stationed in Grand Island, Nebraska, with the 718th Bomb Squadron of the AAF.

Frank Richards has recently arrived back in the States after an extended tour of duty in the Pacific.
